Endangered Species List

These elusive creatures were put on the Endangered Species List because their numbers are few and far between. If you are lucky enough to spot one of these rare creatures, I implore you to order it, as it is doubtful they will make it through the week.

Cabernet Sauvignon	19	Chalk Hill, 2006	Sonoma County, California	18	54

What a stroke of luck! I never thought I would be able to offer this incredible Cabernet at such an amazing price!! This wine is big, juicy, and brooding. It comes from the Chalk Hill AVA in Sonoma County and is drinking fantastically right now. You gotta check this one out!!!

Sangiovese	17	La Spinetta, "Il Nero di Cassanova"	Tuscany, Italy	14	42
------------	----	-------------------------------------	----------------	----	----

Giorgio Rivetti could be my favorite winemaker on the planet, although he will tell you "I am a Farmer, not a winemaker." His wines are of the utmost quality and character. To not know his wines would be a tragedy. This incredible Sangiovese from the Cassanova vineyard in Tuscany is the perfect way to take a short trip to Italy! Salute.

Old Vine Verdejo	507	Naiades, 2008	Rueda, Spain	17	51

Year in and year out, this is one of my favorite white wines from Spain. Naiades comes from 120+ year old Verdejo vines in La Seca, which is considered by many to be the "Grand Cru" of Rueda. This wine is modeled after the wines of the late great Didier Daganau. Chalked full of minerality, melon, and tropical fruit, the finish only benefits from the whisper of oak. Incredible!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Pinot Grigio	506	Venica, "Jesera"	Collio, Italy	14	42
--------------	-----	------------------	---------------	----	----

This amazing Bodymanic estate is my favorite white wine producer in all of Italy. This Pinot Grigio is rich with a beautiful copper color. The nose is full of apricot, anjou pear, and acacia flower. This wine is the definition of what great Italian Pinot Grigio can be. Salute!
